“In all his dealings with us, we found Jack to be highly professional and he went out of his way to help us secure not merely the property, but also the best deal on the property. In addition to helping prepare the documentation, Jack was more than willing to work unsociable hours in order to ensure we were completely satisfied. What particularly impressed me about Jack was the fact that he followed through and did not lose interest in us as a client once our initial transaction had been completed.”
