“I recently had the pleasure of working with Jack Turturici on a disposition project in Charlotte, NC. During our work together on this project, I was impressed with Jack’s concise communication skills and timing of what needed to be accomplished, as well as his proper delegation of each task, problem solving and utmost professionalism in handling the project to its completion. It would be a pleasure to partner with him in future, and I would certainly recommend him as an excellent source for solving real estate needs for others.”
