“It is my pleasure to recommend Jack Turturici as a real estate agent for any individual or family searching for the most qualified person to sell their property. Jack is highly talented technologically and made excellent use of the relevant search engines and real estate databases. He is a master with contract negotiations and made a deal for me that was beyond what I expected. He is a highly attentive broker and kept me apprised throughout the entire process. All phone calls and emails were returned the same day. All timelines that needed attention during the contingency period and escrow were handled efficiently by Jack. In my opinion, Jack is hands down the best in the business. If I were to need a real estate agent again, Jack would be the one I would call. You will never meet a more qualified, experienced and attentive agent than Jack.”
